

8) June 1752 – Richard “F” (son of the above Richard??) purchased 50 acres for P 6, 13 s., Book 3, p. 103, Records of Beaufort County – south side of Pamlico River.

9) June 1752 – Richard “F” purchased 115 acres on the south side of the Pamlico River for P 33. Book 3, p. 103, Records of Beaufort County.

10) October 1752 – Richard “F” and his wife, Phoebe, received certain personal property in the division of an estate, probably Phoebe’s father’s estate.

11) December 12, 1752 – James “F” died. His will is recorded in the “Old Wills” Book in Beaufort County Courthouse. The will is dated December 4, 1752. Certain personal property is left to “my sister”, Leah Barrow. There is no mention of a surviving wife. “All of my land is left to my son, a minor, James Flannakin (Flannagin)” (spelled both ways in the record). One of the named executors is Richard “F”, a brother.

12) March 1757 – John “F” and his wife, Margaret, sold land on the Tar River in Beaufort County. Book 3, p. 303, Beaufort County Records. (I find no record of John “F” purchasing or inheriting this property. It should be noted that the Tar River is an extension of the Pamlico River to the west. Presently the dividing line between the Tar and Pamlico is at Washington, North Carolina. Don’t know if this is the same dividing line in 1757.)
